Manzullo meets with farmers

Congressman Don Manzullo, R-16th Congressional District, highlighted current agricultural issues and legislation in a meeting with DeKalb County farmers. He announced his support of the energy bill, upgrading the locks and dams on the Mississippi River, and elimination of the death tax. Manzullo represents the northern part of DeKalb County as U.S. Congressman. Shown with Manzullo (from left) are Jamie Willrett, Malta, Art Bingham, Clare and Paul Rasmussen, Jr., Genoa.
